

2018 ELECTION NOMINEES

WARDENS

Virginia Chappell, Senior Warden (one-year term)

Virginia is thrilled to be entering her third year as Senior Warden as Father Burch begins his third year as rector. She looks forward to serving the parish in ways that will build on the progress made in recent years.

She is a life-long Episcopalian and has been a member of St. Mark's for nearly 30 years—since fall 1988, when she moved to Milwaukee to join the English Department faculty at Marquette University. She retired in May 2013. Her (almost) five years of retirement so far have enabled her to read more, attend more theater, and spend more time with friends.

Randy Miller, Junior Warden (one-year term)

Randy has been a member of St. Mark's for over eight years. He is a graduate student in European history at UWM and a musician. He has found an outlet at St. Mark's to serve the church with these gifts. One can occasionally see him playing during services with Steve Wolff. Randy also coordinated and helped teach an Adult Formation section on church history. He served on the Vestry from 2012 to 2014 and as a deputy to the Diocesan Convention in 2010 and 2016. Randy lives near St. Mark's with his wife, Jana, and his dog, Jacques.

VESTRY NOMINEES

Georgia Cain (three-year term)

Georgia and husband John have been active member of St. Mark's Church since 1977. Together they have raised two children, Demetria, who makes her home in New York City, and Alexander, who continues to be a member of St. Mark's. Georgia, who is semi-retired, is a graduate of Mount Mary University in Interior Design. Upon graduation, she was hired as a corporate interior designer and event planner for Quad Graphics. She was responsible for both employee and customer related events and hospitality. She recently retired after 28 years. She continues to do various events as an independent contractor. It is this passion for memorable events and hospitality that she brings to St. Mark's. She has organized many events here, most recently the Epiphany Dinner. She currently serves on the 125th Anniversary Committee. She and John credit coming to St. Mark's to the warmth of individuals. They have made life-long relationships with many current members and those that have moved on. She feels most grateful to St. Mark's for supporting her son, Alex, who continues to call St. Mark's his parish home.

Bill Hunt (one-year term)

Bill grew up in Delavan, Wisconsin, where he had his first communion and was confirmed at Christ Episcopal Church. He attended college at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, where he received his Bachelors of Letters and Science. He has spent 23 years in the automotive business, holding positions of finance, sales, and as General Manager. Bill lives in Shorewood with his wife, Marcia, and their two Australian shepherds, Motor and Reagan. He has been attending St. Mark's regularly for the last five years. He enjoys music, theatre, traveling, and playing, watching and talking sports.

David Miyama (three-year term)

David has been attending St Mark's since January 2016. He has been a member of the Episcopal Church since 1988. He has lived most of his life in the Midwest, primarily in Michigan and Wisconsin. He is currently a practicing physician at Columbia St Mary's. He is an usher at St Mark's, and he has helped at the Gathering and the Downer corn roast. He has served on vestries at three previous churches. He looks forward to becoming more involved in the life of St Mark's.

Ginny Schrag (three-year term)

Ginny first came to St. Mark's in 1983 shortly after moving to Milwaukee. Born and raised on a small wheat farm in Kansas, she received her Bachelors in Social Work from the University of Kansas and her Masters in Urban Affairs from Wichita State University with a few years in between working with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. She has taken on several roles at St. Mark's over the years, including the choir, youth group, Sunday School teacher and director, children's music, pageant directing, coffee hour and hospitality chair, adult education, vestry and even a stint as Junior Warden. She now especially enjoys Theology Pub and the choir. Her work for the past 18 years has been as Executive Director of The Gathering, an interfaith meal program. Prior to that, she worked for 14 years with Parents Anonymous, a child abuse prevention organization. Her passions are singing, all types of sports, social justice, camping, small group facilitation, and her daughter, Greta, who grew up at St. Mark's and now works as a social worker in Chicago. She believes she would bring to the vestry an understanding of how nonprofits function, program and volunteer development, organizational history, flexibility, and a solid and growing faith.

CANDIDATES FOR DELEGATE TO 2018 DIOCESAN CONVENTION

Barbara Costanzo

Barbara joined St. Mark's in 2010 shortly after moving to Shorewood. She serves as an usher and as an occasional member of the Garden Guild and enjoys the fellowship at Tuesday breakfasts and the Women's Book Group. As a member of the diocesan Professional Standards Committee, she has reviewed and updated diocesan personnel policy documents. She is retired but stays busy with volunteering for the AARP Tax-Aide program and driving clients for Shoreline Interfaith Senior Services. She enjoys classical music and is a faithful attendee at MSO concerts.

Susan Rohde

Sue Rohde has been a member of St. Mark's for 15 years. She is a wife, mother of one daughter, and grandmother to two boys who attend Sunday School at St. Mark's. Retired after over 30 years in health insurance and four years at Curves, she heads the Prayer Team, manages the Thrift Shop, serves as a lector during Sunday worship, and is on the Pastoral Care committee. (She also likes to attend Diocesan conventions.) Sue comes from an ecumenical background, having been a member of Lutheran and Congregational churches as well as having attended Roman Catholic masses and Vineyard Church services. She was confirmed in the Episcopal Church after joining St. Mark's. Her husband, Steve Rohde, will join St. Mark's as he is now retired. He is Composer in Residence and Associate Organist here.
