Jeremiah was a kid, like all of us involved in Youth Sunday. God came to him, Jeremiah, and told him to prophecy, which was predicting the future, only adults did it. Jeremiah was like, "no way." He told God he was just a kid. God said, "Don't say you're just a kid." And then, Jeremiah said, "Well, I cannot talk." God touched his mouth and gave him the words to speak. Jeremiah was scared and afraid, like most people would be, but even though he was a kid, he did an adult task. My point is that even though we are just kids, we can do great things and we can be called by God, too.
