

Katherine Katter

Senior Warden
one-year term

Kathy has attended St. Mark's since 1987, having served as a vestry member (two 3-year terms), more recently as Discernment Committee co-chair and 125th Anniversary Committee co-chair. She currently organizes Lay Readers and serves on the Flower Guild. She grew up in the Episcopal Church, attending wherever her military family was stationed, from Alaska to Florida, New York to California. She graduated from the University of Washington in Seattle where she met and married Vince. They raised three children here at St. Mark's. Kathy recently retired from a 25-year career as a high school English teacher in Milwaukee Public Schools. She maintains National Board Certification and has success coaching students at the national level in poetry recitation. She hopes to bring wit and wisdom to the task of wardening.

Bill Hunt

Junior Warden
one-year term

Bill grew up in Delavan, Wisconsin, where he had his first communion and was confirmed at Christ Episcopal Church. He attended college at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh, where he received his Bachelors of Letters and Science. He has spent 23 years in the automotive business, holding positions of finance, sales, and as General Manager. Bill lives in Shorewood with his wife, Marcia, and their two Australian shepherds, Motor and Reagan. He has been attending St. Mark's regularly for the last six years, and he served on the Vestry this past year. He enjoys music, theatre, traveling, and playing, watching and talking sports.

Dan Buckler

Vestry
three-year term

Dan has loved St. Mark's since he and his wife, Ashley, first stepped foot in the church after moving from Ohio in 2013. Since then, he has served on three Stewardship Committees and helped coordinate the Theology Pub ministry, which ended last year. He is a forester with the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources and is active in many environmental and social organizations. Catch him under the forest canopy or in the comic book store.

Graicey Van Spankeren

Vestry
three-year term

Graicey has attended St. Mark's for a year and a half, joining the parish soon after moving to Milwaukee to start graduate school. After completing a Master of Education degree in May 2018, she began working full-time as a career counselor at Marquette University where she also served as a Hall Minister for three semesters in a sophomore residence hall. Having recently relocated to Riverwest with her fiancé, Bobby, Graicey is looking forward to getting more involved at St. Mark's. She and Bobby were recently received into the Episcopal Church and will be married in St. Mark's this coming May. Graicey also enjoys baking sourdough bread, ballet, and studying French.

Judith Miller

Vestry
three-year term

Judith joined St Marks in August 2016 upon moving from Madison (St. Andrews) where she had lived for 21 years. She spent her professional life in healthcare administration and software project management, most recently having retired from Epic in Verona, Wisconsin. After being received into the Episcopal Church in 1982 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, she served for eight years as a member of the Commission on Ministry and two years on the Diocesan Board of Trustees. During her time in Madison, she served for nine years as a member of the Office of Lawyer Regulation committee that investigated allegations of ethical violations by attorneys in Dane County. More recently she completed training in spiritual direction at the Siena Center in Racine and in Ignatian spirituality and retreat giving with the British Jesuits in Wales, UK. She has offered several quiet days at St Marks and is also part of the summer retreat team at the Jesuit Retreat House in Oshkosh. Her other volunteer activities include teacher spiritual formation at the Cristo Rey Jesuit High School and patient/family hospitality at Froedtert Cancer Center Day Hospital. Retirement is also providing her the opportunity get back to sewing and other types of needlework through the quilt-making program at the Ronald McDonald House and a pillowcase making project for the residents of the Women's Resource Center emergency shelter.

Alex Cain

Diocesan Convention
Deputy

Alex was baptized and confirmed at St. Mark's. He is an active member of the choir and occasionally instrumentalist. He works as a structural engineer and enjoys doing painting and restoration projects at the church as a hobby. He has done mission (engineering) work with the Haiti Project in Jeanette, Haiti and has been involved in fundraising events here. He is a member of the Finance and Outreach Committees at St. Mark's. He has been involved many of the Outreach fundraising and volunteering events with the church. He, like many others, is excited to see many more newcomers in recent years.

Vince Katter

Diocesan
Convention
Deputy

Vince has been a member of St. Mark's since 1987, and have participated in a wide range of church activities over the years. At the moment, he's involved with Chalice Bearing, Choir, Eucharistic Visits, Men's Fellowship Group, Ride Ministry, and Readers. Vince is married to Kathy, and they have 3 adult children — Nick, Anna, and Laura. They also have one dog, Lucy Q, and one cat, Knebula. Vince and Kathy live over on the West Side of Milwaukee, and Vince's day job is business analysis and project management for a software company.

Barbara Costanzo

Diocesan Convention
Deputy (Alternate)

Barbara joined St. Mark's in 2010 shortly after moving to Shorewood. She serves as an usher and as an occasional member of the Garden Guild and enjoys the fellowship at Tuesday breakfasts and the Women's Book Group. As a member of the diocesan Professional Standards Committee, she has reviewed and updated diocesan personnel policy documents. She is retired but stays busy with volunteering for the AARP Tax-Aide program and driving clients for Shoreline Interfaith Senior Services. She enjoys classical music and is a faithful attendee at MSO concerts.
